

FRANK OF MARBLETOWN

Twelve Dollars Reward

Ran away from the subscriber, on Wednesday the 4th inst., a Negro man named FRANK, about 5 feet high, 46 years of age, one of his legs is crooked, occasioned by being broke, shews [sic] his teeth much when laughs, Had on when he went away, a blue cap, leather breeches, a homespun linsey woolsey coat
and jacket, and had on an old pair mockersons [sic].
He found a hat, which he carried along, and may have put it on his head. -----Whoever will take up said negro in the county of Ulster, shall receive Ten Dollars reward: if out of the county, Twelve Dollars, and all reasonable charges.

PETER JANSEN

Marbletown, Jan.13, 1797.