

SUSANA AND HER SON OF HURLEY

Ten Dollars Reward.
RUNAWAY from the subscriber, last evening, a Negro Wench, named Susanna, with her son, named Abraham, (commonly called Brom) formerly the property of Cornelius Newkirk, jun. of Hurley. It is supposed her husband, named Peter, a free man, who has worked at Mr. Hendrickson's and Mr. Baldwin's in Poughkeepsie, has conveyed her away. She is tall slim wench, appears somewhat in years, has a large wart over her left eye, her common language Dutch—dress unknown. Her son is about 9 years old, a likely boy, had on a dark snuff coloured coat, yellow waistcoat and a light coloured coating pair of trowsers. Whoever will bring the said runaways to the subscriber, or lodge them in Poughkeepsie Jail, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid by ROBERT GILL.
Poughkeepsie, January 24, 1803. 13

Ten Dollars Reward.
RUNAWAY from the subscriber, last evening, a Negro Wench named Susana, with her son, named Abraham, (commonly called Brom) formerly the property of Cornelius Newkirk, jun. of Hurley. It is supposed her husband, named Peter, a free man, who has worked at Mr. Hendrickson's and Mr. Baldwin's in Poughkeepsie, has conveyed her away- She is a tall slim wench, appears somewhat in years, has a large wart over her left eye, her common language Dutch- dress unknown. Her son is about 9 years old, a likely boy, had on a dark snuff coloured coat, yellow waistcoat and a light coloured coating pair of trousers. Whoever shall bring the said runaways to the subscriber, or lodge them in Poughkeepsie jail, shall have the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid by

ROBERT GIL
Poughkeepsie, January 24, 1803.